papers regarding the secession of Manitoba are wholly sensational and devoid of truth. The hoax was originated by a number of young bloods in this city who desired to get up a little excitement and a miniature war on paper.

Telegram from Wm Henry Smith, manager of the Associated Press, accompanied the statement that the gentleman desired to read before the Committee. Chairman [redacted] did not think it necessary to have the statement read at this time.

NEVER go fast
When you ought to go slow,
Is a very wise saying
That all of you know.
But when it is out,
It is a wise of the past,
For this being lent
You should all go fast.

The crack on Front street has widened but it is thought that no serious damage will be done to the thoroughfare.

Dr. W. S. Moores has just added to the appliances at his dental office an improved Wilkinson chair, which is a late invention and adds much to the comfort of patients. His rooms are very handsomer furnished throughout, and are provided with all the latest facilities for the business. The public will find Dr.
Moores an experienced dentist and his work satisfactory in all cases.

While repairing the railroad trestle across the road which leads from East Mayville to the Flamingburg turnpike, on Tuesday morning, several men were severely hurt by the falling of a lot of timber. James Kinaley, of Covington, had his shoulder dislocated, Alex Thomas of Falmouth, was cut about the head and several others were more or less bruised. Their injuries were attended to by Dr. J. T. Strode.

PERSONALS.
Mr. Wm. Ort and wife, of Georgetown, Ohio, are visiting their friends in Mayville.
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall were summoned to Winchester, Ky., yesterday, by a telegram announcing the dangerous illness of Mr. W. D. Sutherland, father of Mrs. Hall. A despatch received this morning brings the intelligence of Mr.
Sutherland's death.

The following is from the Mayville correspondence of the Eagle: The editor of the DAILY BULLETIN in his issue of the 21st, unintentionally gave the credit of the Mayville contribution to the Red Cross fund to the citizens of Mayville, as if they were the only contributors. It was largely the work of the collection committee in this relief fund. I am sure our citizens would not have the good people of the county to imagine that they were alone in this noble work, nor would they wish to withdraw from others that need of praise justly their. He did his part well.
All honor to him for his noble efforts, and entirely entitled to credit. The relief was a common bond brought together the good and generous community in the interest of suffering humanity. The committee of collection Messrs. J. T. Wilson, Walter Matthews and Dr. P. C. Foster called upon the citizens and they responded generously to the call. All who assisted in the good work were given equal share of credit for the accomplishment of it.

The contribution was credited to the name entered on the record book at the relief depot. The BULLETIN regrets the information was not complete and calls the attention of its readers to the above explanation.

The following expenditures were made by Mayor January, under the authority of the Secretary of War, for the benefit of the food sufferers at the places named:

Hunt-Cook.

The marriage of Miss Nattie G. Hunt to Mr. Edward Dunbar Cook, which took place on Tuesday morning, February 26, at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Hunt, of Fourth street, the aunt of the bride, was a very quiet and pleasant affair. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Glorieux in a most impressive manner, which could not fail to make its impression on the hearts of the contracting parties of the sacred and responsible steps which they had taken in the untold path of the future. The bride was most becomingly attired in wine colored ottoman silk, elaborately trimmed in emossed velvet, which also constituted the entire front, and a most coquettish hat of corresponding color, with sweeping ostrich plumes, which was in perfect harmony with the sweet and fascinating personality of the fair bride.
Her ornaments were diamonds, the gift of the groom. The groom wore the usual conventional suit of black. He is an esteemed gentleman in every sense of the word. The guests were invited to partake of the wedding breakfast served by Mrs. Fred. Traxel which was elegantly served up in several courses of choice viands, fruits, ices and confectionery.
Over a hundred invitations were issued.
The bride was the recipient of quite a number of handsome and costly gifts which bore evidence of the esteem in which she was held by her friends.

Among the strangers who were present were Mr. Bray, of Philadelphia, Pa., Mr.
John C. Hunter, Mr. Bush Cook, Mr. R. S.
Downing and Mr. Lowery, all of Nicholasville, Ky. The bride and groom left on the one o'clock train for Cincinnati, which is to be their future home—they were accompanied to the depot by a number of their gentlemen friends bidding them a safe voyage over the matrimonial sea. Their friends wish them every blessing and happiness.

For and About Women.
"Only think of it," exclaimed a Chicago girl, "I weigh one hundred and twenty pounds in my stockings. 'Do you?'" replied her cousin from St. Louis, glancing at the foot of the first speaker.
"I wouldn't have believed it. How much do you weigh altogether?" They never speak of it again.

Women are gradually making greater headway in the paths of industry litherately occupied wholly by men. The latest step in this direction is the application of a woman in San Francisco for the position of driver on the cars of the City Street Railway Company. She has not yet been appointed.

If your children are choked up like they had bad cold, with a dry hacking cough, restless at night, peevish during the day, their appetite irregular and their bowels disordered, give them a few sticks of Wills' World Worm Candy, and you will be gratified at the return of health and sunshine. It never fails.
Ask your physician and he will endorse the efficiency of the combination; and the children never object to taking it.

The Wife of an Ambassador recently put the following question to the daughter of one of our merchant princes at a Presidential levee: "My dear I was told before I visited America, that your countrywomen were not remarkable for the teeth. I find it quite the contrary. Take your own for instance.
Pray what dentifrice do you use?" "I have used Sapolin for years, and I prefer it to any other," was the response.
Reader, follow her example!

A Case Not Beyond Help.

D. M. H. Hinsdale, Kenosha, Ill., advises of a remarkable cure of consumption. He says: "A neighbor's wife was stricken with violent cough, diarrhoea and pronounced beyond help from my consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the lungs. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one-half dozen bottles, she was about the house doing her own work."

To the Trade.

The trade and public generally are informed that we have in stock a large supply of doors, sash, blinds and other manufactured work, together with all grades of lumber that were in no way injured by the flood, which we are prepared to furnish promptly and at reasonable prices.
Orders for sawed lumber solicited.
Our friends who have left their accounts unsettled will favor us greatly by arranging the same as speedily as possible, as we are at present much in need of the money due us. Respectfully, J. COLLINS, RUDY & Co.
